The GIS and Surveying professions provide instrumental services within the State of New Jersey and around the country. With the rise of technology and changing user needs, discussions regarding both fields are necessary for continued learning, understanding, and growth to reach our common goals.

This Geospatial Forum presentation on March 2 will be a moderated discussion between GIS and Surveying professionals, bringing information, interests, and concerns to the table for on-going conversations. Discussion points will include rules and regulations, differences in geospatial technology, and use-cases regarding tax parcels, asset collection, and elevation data.

The goal for this meeting is to keep lines of communication open, and provide knowledge and background on how our shared geospatial fields can continue to complement each other.
